Job Description

To be a Trustee of an organisation is an exciting and fulfilling role. The most effective Boards are ones which benefit from individuals from a diverse range of backgrounds, experiences and skill sets. The role of a Trustee is to ensure that Dumfries and Galloway Advocacy Service fulfils its duty to its beneficiaries and delivers on our objectives, mission statement, principles, and standards.

Mission Statement

To be a high-quality, influential independent advocacy provider and model of good practice.

Vision

Ensure that all eligible clients have equitable access to our services.

Values

- Person centred
- Independent
- Empowering
- Ethical
- Listening
- Learning
- Respectful
- Empathic
- Caring

Principles and Standards

All our advocacy services are delivered with reference to:

- Our own mission, vision, and values
- The principles and standards for independent advocacy
- Agreements with funders and purchasers
- Policies and procedures that apply to the delivery of our services
- The Law
- OSCR (Office for Scottish Charities Regulation) Registration
- Suitable Organisational accreditation schemes

The statutory duties of a trustee are:

- To ensure the organisation complies with its governing document – known as our Articles and Memorandums
- To ensure that the organisation pursues its objectives as defined in its governing document
- To contribute actively to the Board of Trustees role in giving firm strategic direction to the organisation, setting overall policy, defining goals and setting targets and evaluating performance against agreed targets
- To safeguard the good name and values of the organisation
- To ensure the effective and efficient administration of the organisation
- To ensure the financial stability of the organisation
- To protect and manage the property of the organisation and to ensure the proper investment of the organisation's funds
- To appoint the Chief Executive Officer and monitor his or her performance

In addition with other trustees to hold the charity “in trust” for current and future beneficiaries by:

- Ensuring that the charity has a clear vision, mission and strategic direction and is focused on achieving these
- Being responsible for the performance of the charity and for its “corporate” behaviour; ensuring that the charity complies with all legal and regulatory requirements
- Acting as guardians of the charity’s assets, both tangible and intangible, taking all due care over their security, deployment and proper application
- Ensuring that the charity’s governance is of the highest possible standard

As well as the various statutory duties, any trustee should make full use of any specific skills, knowledge or experience to help the board make good decisions.

The above list of duties is indicative only and not exhaustive. The Trustee will be expected to perform all such additional duties as are reasonably commensurate with the role.
